SPORTING ITEMS.

Miss Betty Nuthall beat Miss D. M. Furnivall by 6-0, 6-0, in the first round of the Women's Tennis Singles at West Side Country Club Tournament at Ealing on Monday.

While practising at the nets at Sudbury Hall, Suffolk, the residence of Mr R. H. Lyon, the Gloucestershire County Cricket Club captain, Charlie Parker, the Gloucestershire slow bowler, was struck by a ball on the left leg. He was X-rayed at the Gloucester Infirmary, and it was found that the bone was injured, and there was a suspicion of a fracture. Parker will be unable to play in the opening match of the season, and will probably be incapacitated for three or four weeks.

Kaye Don's record for a lap of the Brooklands track at West Byfleet was broken on Monday by Captain H. R. S. Birkin on the Hon. Dorothy Paget's four-cylinder Bentley car. Kaye Don's figures were 131.45 m.p.h. Captain Birkin covered the first lap in 1min. 14sec., at an average speed of 154.60 m.p.h., and the second in 1min. 13 3-5sec. at an average of 155.35 m.p.h.

The annual Oppy Wood Memorial Services in Hull this year will be held on Saturday, May 3rd, in Holy Trinity Church, and St. Charles Roman Catholic Church.

Mr J. Wheatley, M.P., who was taken ill at his hotel in Birmingham last Friday with a severe chill, was stated on Monday to be out of danger and progressing satisfactorily.

HULL WEDDING.

MR A. BASKINGTON AND MISS H. CARVER.

The wedding took place on Monday afternoon at Holy Trinity Church, Hull, of Mr Arthur Baskington, of 4, Park-grove, Pulham-street, Hull, the adopted son of the late Mr G. W. Hill and Mrs A. R. Hill, and Miss Hannah Carver, of Myitongate, daughter of Mr A. Carver and the late Mrs H. Carver.

The bride, who was given away by her father, was attired in a lovely gown of ivory panne velvet made on mediæval lines, with a square cut neck and tight sleeves, and a long, uneven skirt. It was handsomely embroidered in pearls and diamante. A graceful feature was the very panne velvet hood, and was underlined with wild rose pink chiffon, and finished with a delightful pattern of the embroidery. A halo head-dress made of wax flowers, and a veil of pearl and diamante embroidery held a long veil of Brussels net in place. She carried a sheaf of lilies.

There were two attendants—the Misses E. and B. Davies—who wore dresses of ivory Chantilly lace made in the Princess style with close-fitting bodices joined to skirts of ankle length. They carried bouquets of pink carnations and red roses, as did the bridegroom's little page, who wore a little frock of wild rose satin with a Juliet cap of pearls. Two page boys were also in attendance dressed in suits of deep rose. The duties of best man were performed by Mr W. Fawcett, of Manchester.

A reception was held later at the Newington Hall, Hull, and the couple left for Scarborough, where the honeymoon will be spent. The bride travelled in a green lace two-piece, over which she wore a navy blue georgette wrap. A beige fur toque and a little navy hat completed the ensemble.

The bride's gowns and the bridesmaids' dresses were designed and made by Elsie Battle, 85, Prospect-street, Hull.

A BUSY VICAR.

EASTER WEDDINGS AT MARFLEET.

(FROM OUR OWN CORRESPONDENT.)

The Rev Wm. Percy Hains and Mrs Hains, of Eastrington Vicarage, celebrated their golden wedding on Monday. Mr Hains has been vicar of Eastrington for nearly 21 years, and the greater part of his 49 years in the ministry has been spent in Yorkshire. He is the eldest son of the late Rev Philip F. J. B. Hains, who was for 40 years vicar of St. George's, Wigan, and Mrs Hains is the daughter of the late Mr and Mrs Wm. Shaw, of Thornhill, Lancs.

GREAT NEW FRENCH CRUISER.

The "Daily Telegraph" Naval correspondent states that France intends to proceed at once with the building of a cruiser of about 27,000 tons displacement, and carrying eight 12-inch guns.

This decision is a result of the recent action by the German Reichsrat in restoring to the Naval Estimates a vote for a second vessel of the class of the "Deutschland," the 10,000-ton "pocket battleship." The Reichstag, with whom the final decision lies, has not yet acted on the matter.

The new French vessel will be incontestably superior in every respect to the Treaty Powers, and practically equal in fighting power to any battle cruiser now afloat, with the sole exception of H.M.S. Hood. She will take about three years to complete.

HULL SEAMEN'S ORPHANAGE.

The 64th annual service in celebration of Founders' Day of the Hull Seamen's and General Orphanage is to be held at Holy Trinity Church, Hull, on Saturday, May 3rd, at mid-day. The service is to be conducted by the Rev Canon C. H. Lenton, M.A. (vicar of Hessle and hon. chaplain), and the sermon will be preached by the Right Rev Bishop Pollock. Later the same day the Sheriff of Hull (Councillor F. Till) will present the awards at the Orphanage.

CLOSING OF THE PUBLIC LIBRARIES.

Sir,—I think it only right that a protest should be made against the closing of the libraries in the City from Thursday to Tuesday.

These institutions are paid for by the ratepayers and are for the public benefit. We are the citizens deprived of the opportunity to exchange books on Saturday?

Most other folk had to work on that day, and I call to see why the library staffs should not be in attendance.
